

SEWALL LIBRARY SALE.

A SPECIMEN OF ROGER PAYNE'S BINDING GOES FOR $75.00.

Seawall's "Annals of the English Stage," in Six Volumes, being the Highest Price of the Day, $75.00 - Divina Commedia.

In Monday's sale there was a copy of Andronico in Greek sold, which fetched $102.

The next number was a copy of the same book in equally good condition, which fetched only $2.50.

The former was bound by Roger Payne, the price of English binders, and the latter by no one else. It is said that Mr. Seawall bought the former from the Heckford sale, at which it fetched $10.

The interest in historic bindings, and books which are precious because of their former ownership, is both natural and on the increase.

Yesterday's sale of the English Stage, which was extended from two volumes to six by the insertion of nearly 500 extra plates, and which fetched $150, is a notable event.
